

Minor in Professional Writing and Editing

Program Requirements

The professional writing and editing minor hones students' writing and editing skills and prepares them to write for a range of real-world audiences and contexts. This minor is an excellent complement to any major, including communication, business, social work and criminal justice. It's also a good option for students interested in careers in publishing or technical writing.

A minor in professional writing and editing requires:

Course	Title	Hours
Select 12 credit hours from the following courses		12
ENGL 210	Composition: Business, Professional and Technical Writing
ENGL 212	Writing with AI
ENGL/LING 315	Introduction to English Linguistics
ENGL 319	Editing Professional and Academic Writing
ENGL 378	Technologies of the Book
ENGL 481	Cooperative Education ¹
ENGL 545	Literary Editing and Publishing
ENGL 577	Digital Textual Editing
ENGL 565	Multimodal Composition
ENGL 582	Studies in Composition
ENGL/LING 663	Languages and Language Attitudes in USA
ENGL 686	Professional, Technical and Scientific Writing and Editing
Total Credit Hours		12

¹ A maximum of three credit hours of ENGL 481 may count towards the minor.