

Minor in Text Technologies

---

Program Requirements

The text technologies minor trains students in interdisciplinary thinking about how and where people access texts, how texts are designed and used, the relationship between writing and power, and the human motivation to write and record ideas. This minor is relevant for students interested in writing, AI, history, politics, law, library science, engineering or computer science.

A minor in text technologies requires:

Course	Title	Hours
Select 12 credit hours from the following courses		12
ENGL 307	Narrative in Literature and Film
ENGL 325	Introduction to English Studies
ENGL 377	Graphic Novels
ENGL 378	Technologies of the Book
ENGL 481	Cooperative Education
ENGL 508A-Z	Critical Studies in Film
ENGL 576	Advanced Studies in the Graphic Novel
ENGL 577	Digital Textual Editing
ENGL 578A-Z	Media and Cultural Studies
ENGL 579	Introduction to Digital Humanities
Total Credit Hours		12