<sup>3</sup> No fewer than 9 credit hours must be literature. It is strongly recommended that students specializing in French take courses in related fields such as other world languages, art history, English, history and philosophy.

Native Speakers

Native speakers are those who have completed a substantial amount of their education in a French-speaking country. Native speakers of French normally are not permitted to receive credit for 100- or 200-level courses. To complete a specialization, the following are required:

Course	Title	Hours
FREN 400	Intermediate French Readings	3
Select one of the following:		3
MCLL 351	Linguistics and World Languages

FREN 526	Advanced French Composition and Grammar
FREN 635	Introduction to Romance Linguistics
Select 12 credit hours of upper-division work in French		12
Total Credit Hours		18

Note: Native speakers are advised to consult with a French professor before enrolling in French courses.

Student Teachers

Students who plan to teach French should consult with the department's professor in charge of teacher education early in their college career. In addition to the requirements for specialization, it is recommended that future teachers take courses beyond the general education requirements in other world languages, history, art history, English or philosophy. It is also recommended that future French teachers spend at least a summer in a French-speaking country before student teaching.

Please contact the College of Education for current teacher education program requirements.

High School French

Students who have completed more than two units of high school French should consult with an advisor in the French department before enrolling in French courses.

Applied Learning

Students in MCLL/French specialization program are required to complete an applied learning or research experience to graduate from the program. The requirement can be met by successfully completing FREN 515C Major Topics: Commercial; FREN 515L Major Topics: Translation; or FREN 526 Advanced French Composition and Grammar, involving the application of language skills to business correspondence.
